ONE WEEK AFTER OGIER AND INGRASSIA TRIUMPH...

No service crew, a monstrous power of 34 HP, a piece of fabric as a roof and a symbolic heater, the Citroën Dyane is far from being the ideal car to attempt the adventure of the Monte-Carlo Historique !

Nevertheless Gomis and Forest will be in Reims this Friday at 8pm and will try to bring the 101st victory to the double chevron brand...

50 YEARS LATER...

John Buffum is believed to be the only driver to have competed in one world championship rally event in five successive decades.

2019 marks the 50th anniversary of John's 12th place finish on the 1969 Monte Carlo Rally in a Porsche 911T, co-driven by Stephen Behr. 1969 was a famous year for Porsche: Björn Waldegård and Lars Helmer took victory in a 911S, followed by the 911 of Larousse and Perramond.

Which better way to celebrate than racing again the legendary Monte-Carlo ? By doing it with the same car...of course!

John start from Monaco tonight at 8pm with the Porsche #85.

Clément Chossat • 2019-02-01 10:00

Actuellement sur le Rallye de Monte-Carlo historique, la légende Bruno Saby s'est confié à #LSD sur son engagement à la lutte contre le Cancer. Il nous explique son histoire avec l'association « Espoir Isère contre le Cancer ».

L'engagement dans la lutte contre le Cancer date de quand ?

Cela fait déjà plusieurs années que je parraine cette association « Espoirs Isère contre le Cancer ». J'essaie de leur trouver des solutions pour qu'ils récoltent des fonds. On organise des événements sportifs comme des compétitions de golf ou encore dans le monde automobile. Nous réalisons des baptêmes automobiles et chaque année, je participe au Rallye de Monte-Carlo pour récolter des fonds. Cette année, nous avons une nouveauté puisque j'ai une plaque sur la voiture et à vendre avec le souvenir du rallye et le nom de l'association. Tous les fonds seront reversés à Espoir Isère contre le Cancer.
