Day #1 — Thursday 27th June 2019

PLEASANT RIDE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE...

Everybody was waiting for this moment. The ride in the countryside to see these works of art on the roads of the Côte d'Azur.

The owners of the cars drove 34 km on the winding roads. In the middle of the ride, the collectors could enjoy a picnic at the Domaine du Mont Leuz.

Early in the afternoon the drivers made their way back to the Principality for the meeting with the jury. A moment for sharing and telling stories about the cars.

MEETING WITH THE JURY

When there is a concours Elégance, there is always a jury. The mission of this group of personalities is to decide between the most beautiful cars in the world. This year the jury of Elégance et Automobile à Monte-Carlo is chaired by Sandra Button, the president of the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance. The American is surrounded with Lorena Baricalla (Monégasque ballerina, singer, actress and passionate of automobile), Lorenzo Ramaciotti (former Group Chief of Design for Pininfarina and former Group Chief of Design for FCA) and Thierry Boutsen (former Formula 1 driver).

THE ÉLÉGANCE PARADE, A VERY SPECIAL MOMENT...
